An original French animal painting by Émile Godchaux (1860–1938), dating to circa 1925, depicting two hunting hounds on an autumn woodland path. Signed at the lower left, the work combines the character of a sporting painting with the atmosphere and depth of a woodland landscape. The hounds' white coats and chestnut markings catch the light against a rich background of russet foliage, golden ochres and earthy greens. Their long ears, attentive expressions…
