PROVENANCE
Private collection, Brussels

A white terrier with brown markings stands in profile, its head turned towards the viewer. The plain setting brings the dog’s stance and alert expression into focus. A Brussels animal painter who also designed posters and worked as an illustrator, Clarys frequently took dogs and horses as his subjects. Here the white body is seen broadside, so the set of the legs and the compact build are as easy to read as the face. At 72 centimetres high, the canvas give…
