PROVENANCE
Private collection

The sitter’s long hair catches the light along his profile. A warm, dark background draws attention to his features and the red of his clothing. The head is set against a field of warm brown, so the outline of the nose and the fall of the hair carry much of the likeness. The artist worked in oil on canvas mounted on board. The painting has been cleaned, including the removal of yellowed varnish, and comes from a private collection. A signature lies beneath…
