A black dog sits against a warm red ground. Its white chest and the links of its chain collar catch the light, breaking up the dark silhouette. White marks at the muzzle and paws echo the patch on the chest. Small gold-coloured medallions hang from the collar, giving the painter a second surface to describe beside the soft fur. The gallery workshop cleaned the canvas. The scrolling ornament of the frame picks up the warm tones around the dog. This late 19t…
