PROVENANCE
Private collection, Belgium

Bare trunks rise through Clesse’s winter woodland. Patches of snow and exposed earth lead the eye from the foreground into the trees, where the pale sky shows through the branches. The wet path reflects the pink and mauve of the sky. As it recedes, those same colours appear in smaller patches between the trunks. Clesse studied at the academy in his native Ixelles and painted Belgian landscapes and harbours. This work comes from a Belgian private collection…
